

Fantasy of Flight Festival Bid Fact Sheet

Overview

As a major destination point between Tampa and Orlando, Fantasy of Flight in Polk City, Florida, is an aviation-themed attraction that takes visitors back to Early Flight, World War I, World War II and beyond. Home to over 40 vintage plans, Fantasy of Flight gives visitors a chance to experience the joys of flight with hands on attractions, guided tours, Biplane and balloon rides. Just off I-4, Fantasy of Flight is bordered by Lake Agnes and is just up the road from USA Water Ski.

This Veteran's Day, November 9-11, Fantasy of Flight will hold a Land, Ski and Air Festival. The inaugural festival is expected to bring out more than 10,000 spectators. USA Water Ski will highlight the excitement of towed water sports over the weekend at Lake Agnes and USA Water Ski.

Event Facts

- Three (3) shows on Saturday, two (2) shows on Sunday
- Show must tie into the theme of the festival (to be announced)
- Show must incorporate pro and "guest" skiers (identified by USA Water Ski) either on shore or the water
- Shows should be a half hour at length
- Travel cost will be covered

Event Bids

Bids are due by June 13, 2007 and should indicate your team's ability to entertain a large group of spectators, please also include the following:

- Examples of past performances
- Boat/gas needs
- Staging/dock needs
- Sound system needs
- Safety needs
- Travel cost

Contact Information

Lindsey Lauck and Amanda Willson
USA Water Ski
(863) 324-4341
Fax (863) 325-8259